Dear Prospective Donor,

The Crohn's & Colitis Foundation's mission is to cure Crohn's Disease and Ulcerative Colitis and to improve the quality of life in children and adults affected by these devastating and debilitating digestive diseases. We are seeking donations to help us raise money through our golf tournament to bring awareness and hopefully one day find a cure.

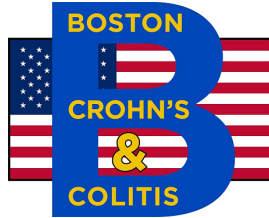

The Boston Take Steps walk will take place on Saturday, June 11, 2022, at North Point Park, Cambridge, Ma. My family and I walk with our team, Veritas Have Faith + Ben, which was created because I, my aunt Faith and her youngest son Ben all have Crohn's Disease. Crohn's is a very big thing in our family, and we take our fundraising efforts very seriously, with the goal to one day find a cure. My aunt Faith and I are in remission and stable, however my cousin Ben has not shared the same fate as he is battling everyday with his Crohn's, constantly in and out of the hospital and most recently getting a portion of his colon removed. It is reasons like this we take our fundraising seriously and do the best we can.

My family and I will be organizing a golf tournament on September 16, 2022, at George Wright Golf Course in Hyde Park. The tournament is now going into its seventh year. Taking on this great challenge will not be easy, so we can use all the help we can get. We are writing to you to ask for a donation of any kind. We have many forums to give away gift cards and other items through raffles and competitions on various holes. You could also sponsor a hole or become a tournament sponsor. All sponsors will be displayed for all participants to observe your generosity.

Many thanks in advance for your consideration of this request. Please refer to the attached documents on the ways to donate, and where/whom to contact. If you have any questions or need further information, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you.

Warm Regards,

Kevin Verity, Benjamin Farnham, Faith Farnham, Colleen Verity, Steven Verity and

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
